OPPORTUNITY

FOREWORD

Each year we realize anew that school is our Opportunity. Here is our world: a place to study, to search, to dream, and to hope. Here we are serious and have fun as we grow and mature, observe, think, and make our choices. Life does not stand still—nor must we. Opportunity waits for no one; but, once offered, it should be grasped. Opportunity is a passport to tomorrow—a bright, big, beautiful tomorrow!

Margaret Secrest loads up for the trip home with help from Dennis McMillian and Terry Key.

OPPORTUNITY IN

BRIEF MOMENTS

WE UNITE IN

Mr. Poplin accepts a gift of some shrubbery from the FHA Clubs presented by Glenda Kirkman, Judy Lawson, and Joyce Grey.

Never does school loyalty go deeper than when a senior puts on his ring for the first time.

Loyalty, Service, Teamwork, Study, and Achievement: these are ideals of which we dream in our hopes for the future. Loyalty is shown by presence, by giving, by work and play. Our chief concern is that we are true to this ideal in all our school activities.

LOYALTY

Bruce Scott is one of our most loyal supporters who lends his cheerful presence at every game.

Loyalty through service is shown by Teddy Brickell and Kyle Southern.

Lou Golding, Mrs. Vivian Lowe, and Bryanna Ramey make booster badges for membership in Young Patriots.

TOMORROW'S

Planning for the Junior-Senior Prom takes many forms. Dale Newman, Brenda Bryant, Frances Hawks, and Wilma Upchurch, work on decorations.

LIFE WILL GROW . . .

Early stages of planning for yearbook layouts bring Mary Jane Moore, Rhodney Lowe and Cynthia Robertson together in August.

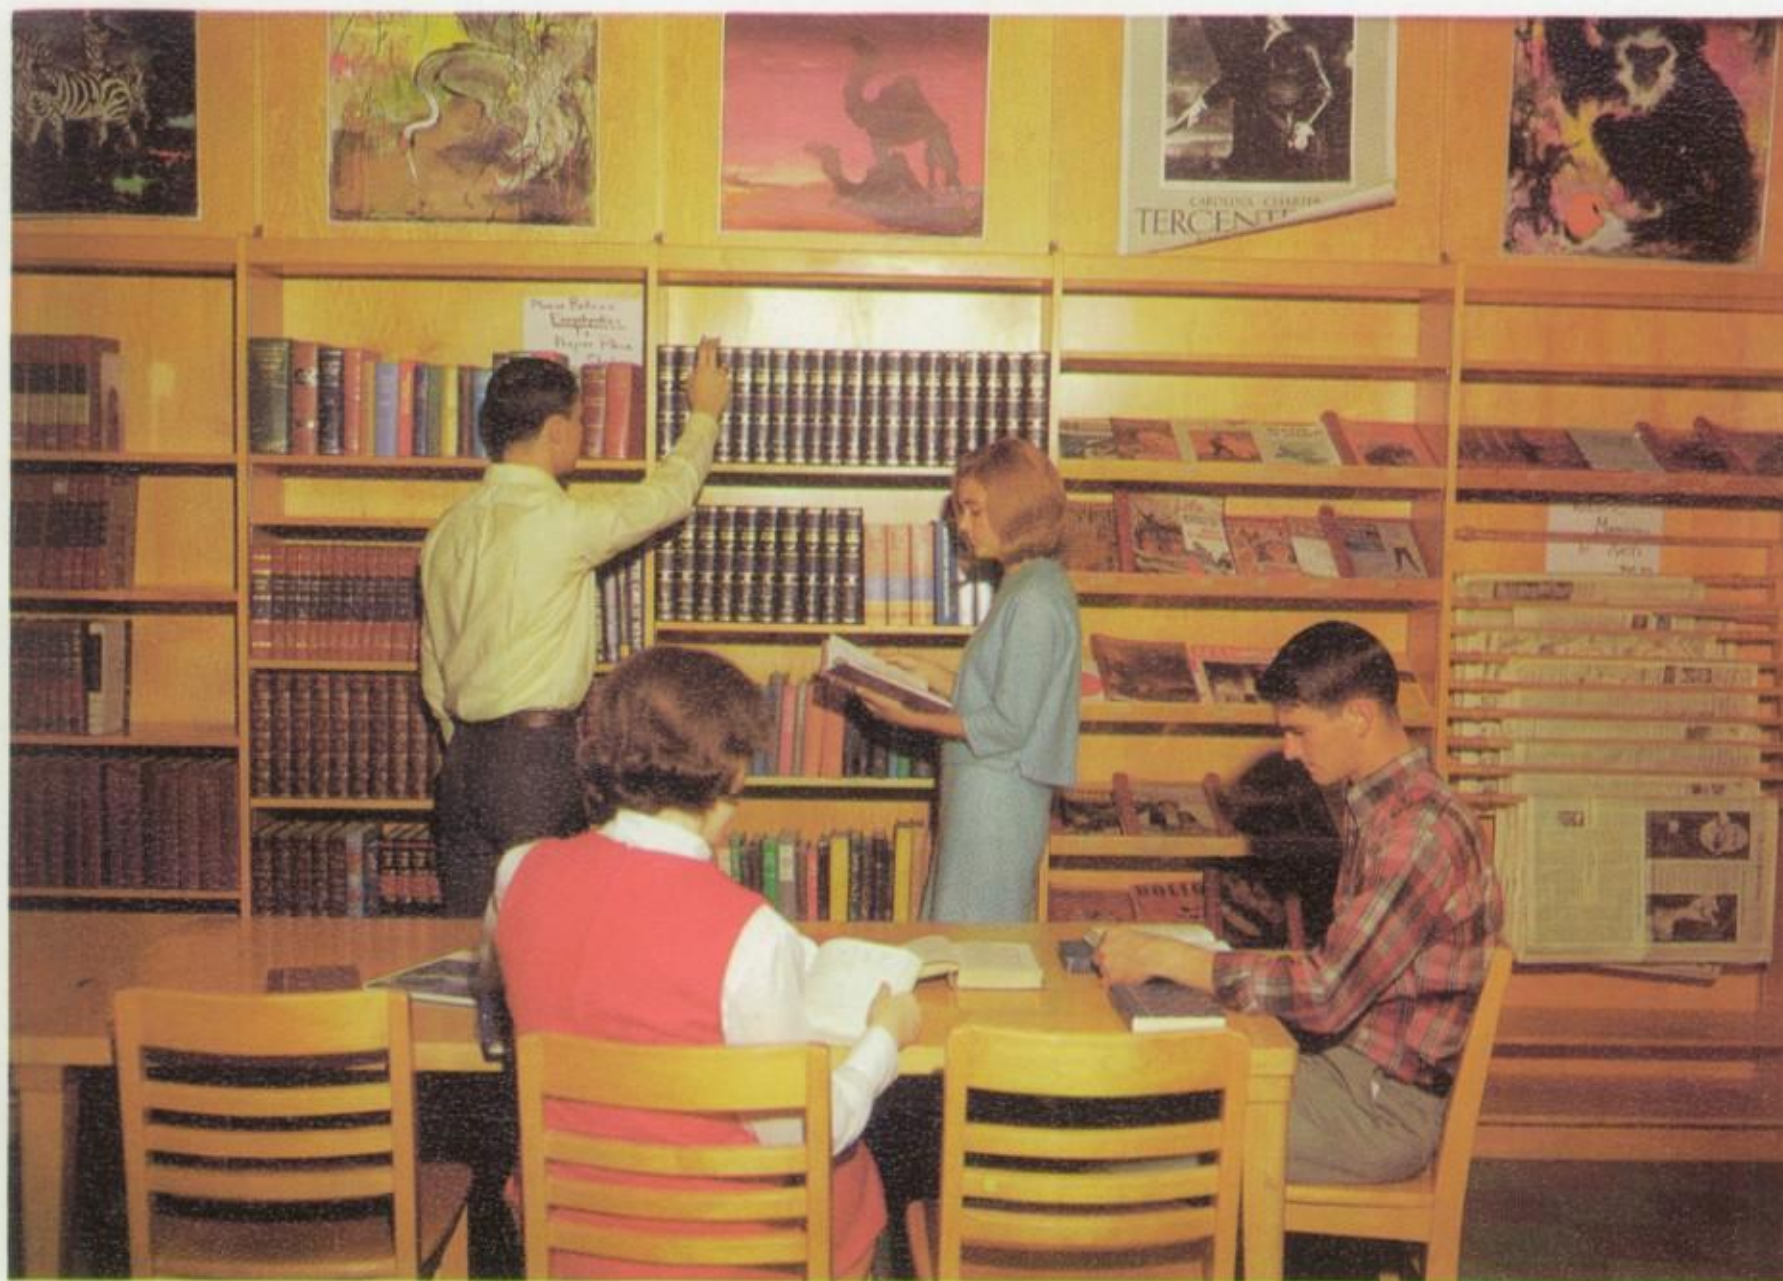

Opportunity for planning is found in such school events as preparing the yearbook, doing committee work, and running for a class office. We learn to work together with tolerance and understanding. Each person may contribute according to his aptitudes and ability. Success comes through one's willingness to serve.

... FROM TODAY'S

The library is an attractive place to work with a good selection of reference materials.

There's one like it in every school! Opportunity for learning is somewhere down under there.

OPPORTUNITY

Today is ours! School is an open door for all. Here we have an opportunity for personal development, physical growth, and mental maturity. Through study we prepare ourselves for the challenge of the future.

Wayne Tolbert presides over a Student Council Assembly.

Sharon Stewart takes advantage of a few minutes off stage during play practice to catch up on her studying.

PLAYING PROMOTES

Phil Clement looks as if he has had practice in daydreaming!

Our world revolves around such things as making the team; singing in the Talent Show; Wednesday night dates; the Junior-Senior Prom; being elected "Queen"; and seeing our names in THE BARK. Learning to play is a vital part of our lives.

Tina Sykes does a Hawaiian dance for the Junior-Senior Prom.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Faculty fun blooms out at the annual Faculty-Student basketball game.

Grey Jarrell's toe finds the spot on the ball that scores another point-after-touchdown.

WE HONOR . . .

When the warm spring sun beckons, Mr. McCann is likely to take a golf club with him as he goes outdoors.

One of the secrets of Mr. McCann's success in teaching is his habit of giving personal attention to individuals.

We honor this year a man for whom we all have the greatest admiration and respect. A quiet, kind man who is ready and willing to help everyone. He is most proficient in his work, and teaches with clarity and simplicity. His keen sense of humor, and his high standard of morality cause him to "stand tall" in the eyes of all of us—students, faculty, and staff. The students of NORTH SURRY HIGH SCHOOL, in love and gratitude, dedicate this, the Seventh Volume of NORTH STAR, to

MR. GUY McCANN

OPPORTUNITY IN

The first responsibility of a school is to provide courses of study compatible with the philosophy of the school. Each year we find that we can add courses and improve offerings. A capable and trained faculty gives strength to a school program of studies. The most effective single element in learning is the teacher.

STUDY

A PRINCIPAL'S DAY HAS

Robert O. Poplin, Jr.
Principal

Mr. Poplin arrives at school prepared for a busy day.

A normal day finds the Principal dealing with many individuals and groups, handling problems of various kinds, counseling with students, and being concerned with every phase of school life. It is a never-ending job and, sometimes, an unappreciated one. It takes constant planning and consistent work to keep abreast of the job, and to realize the satisfactions that can come from it.

There are moments to relax with teachers as they return from lunch.

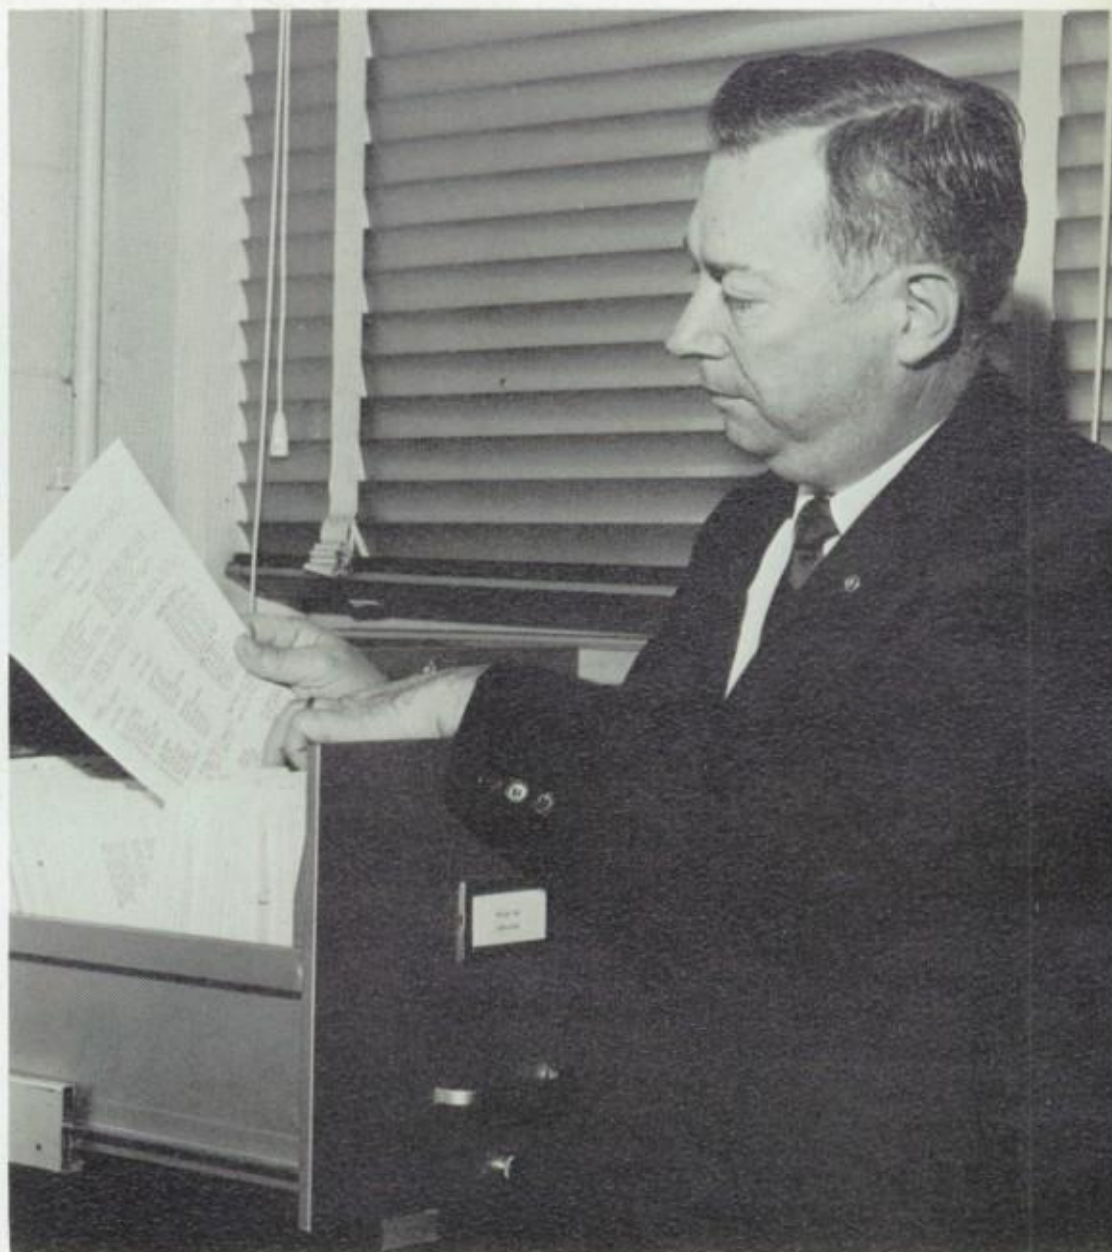

Mrs. Harris takes notes on some reports that must be made.

VARIETY

Mr. Poplin and Mrs. Hemmings plan a student's program for the year.

Keeping files in order is a job that is never finished.

Supervision of bus activities is an important part of every day's work.

After 3:00 o'clock there are still many things to be done: Conferences with teachers, reports to be signed, a desk to clear up, and always another bulletin to be typed. A quick evening meal is usually followed by a game or meeting. A Principal's day usually lasts about 13 hours.

Construction Industry

Vocational courses in the Construction field offer an opportunity to learn many valuable processes. Study is made of masonry, carpentry, blue print reading, wiring, and metal work. When followed by actual apprenticeship in constructing a building a boy may work into a practical vocation. He also will develop attitudes conducive to safe work habits.

From the study of history we get an understanding of our heritage. History also helps us to read carefully, to interpret maps and charts, to evaluate evidence, and to separate fact from opinion.

OUR CULTURE

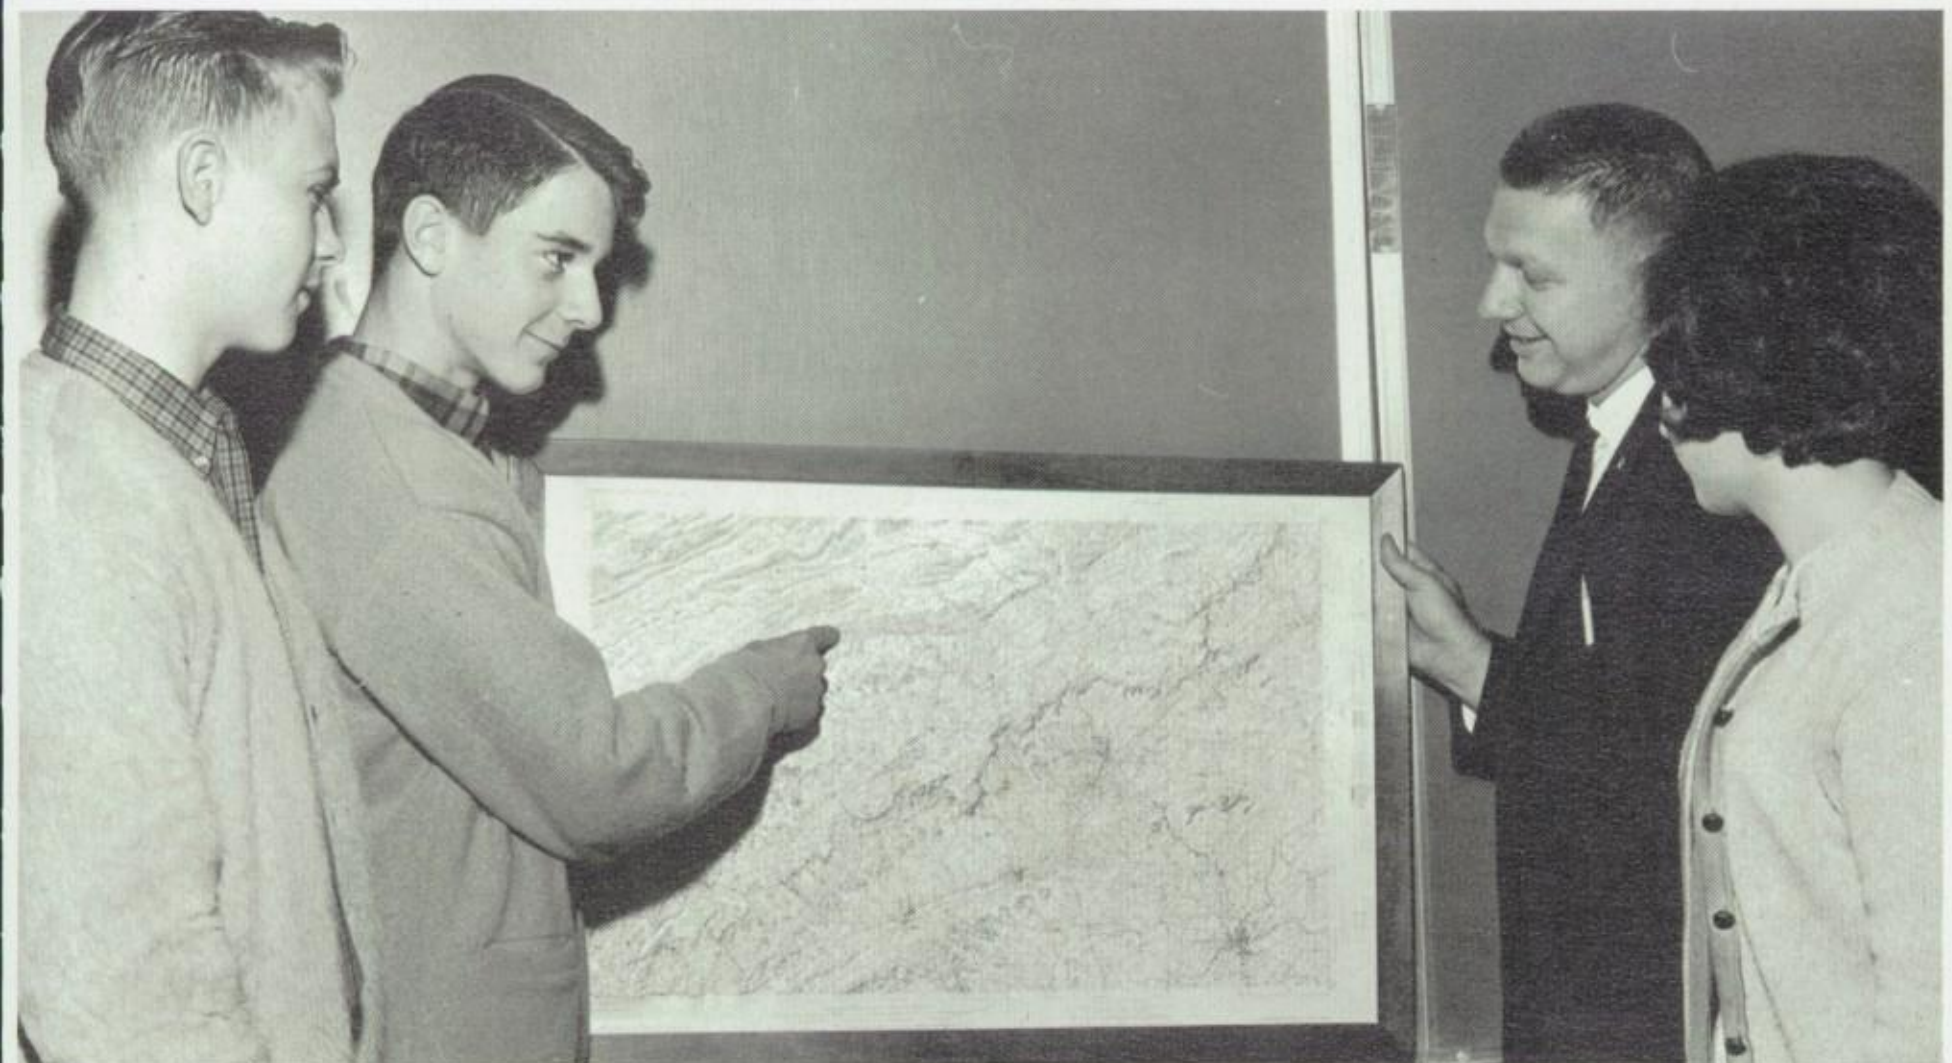

Producing a map of the Roman Empire is an interesting project for Iva Secrest, Bitsy Estes, Linda Johnson, Bobby Chilton, and Dorsey Kemp.

Nellie Arnder, Gary Bunton, and Arthur Hiatt, use the panel discussion method to present material on the Constitution.

Roger Shore and Mike Carson use the topographical map to prove a point to Mr. Haynes and Rita Haynes.

ARTS INSPIRE CULTURE

An opportunity for growth in culture comes through music and language. We learn to communicate, and also, we get a greater appreciation of people of other nations through their music.

IN SCIENCE

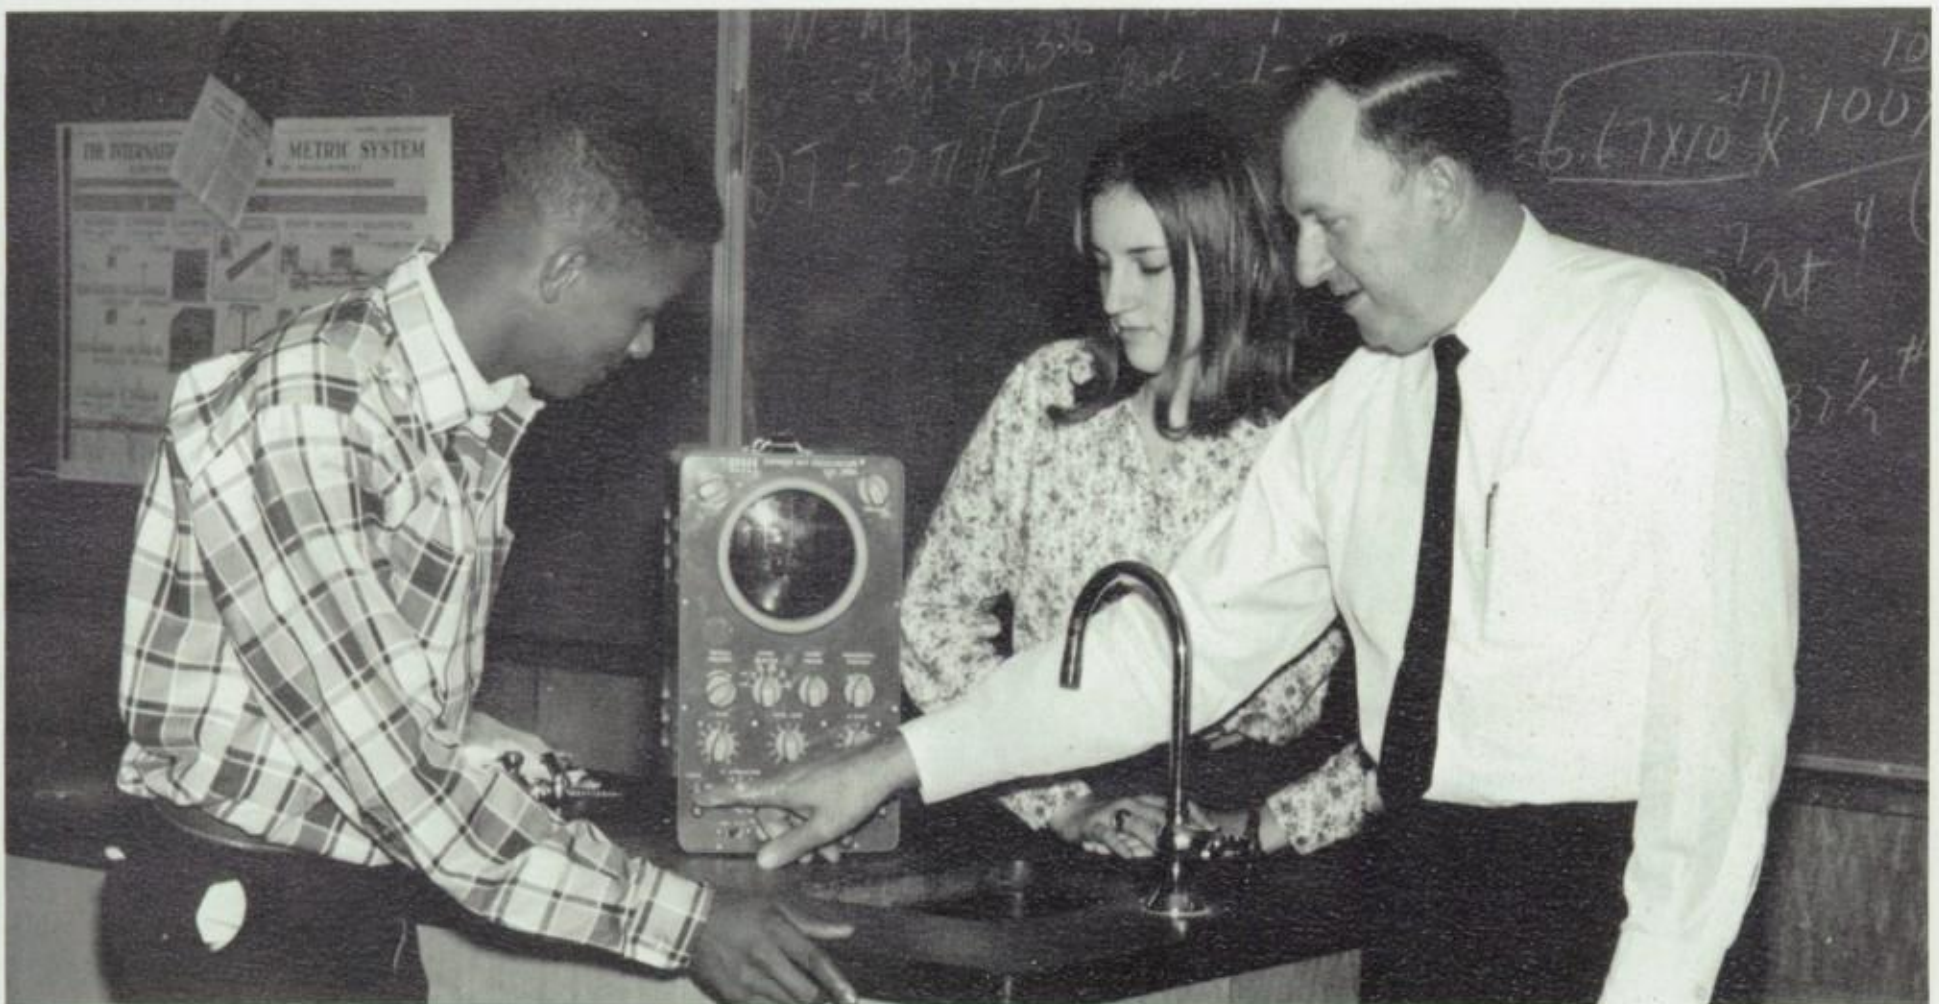

Developments in our present age call for increased interest in the study of science. Our lives are greatly affected by expansion in scientific knowledge. Students are stimulated to think logically through the study of the sciences.

The results of this Chemistry experiment will be determined by the pouring speed of Ann King and Freddie Hutchens while Elizabeth Coalson and Roy Ayres watch intently.

Bonnie Holt and Linda Hull begin identification of internal systems of a frog.

Wayne Brim and Wanda Jones watch closely as Mr. Hiatt explains the use of the oscilloscope.

COURSE IN LAW INSPIRES

Business courses help students to have a better understanding of business principles and practices so that they may become wiser consumers. Students here develop habits of logical thinking and judgment. They are preparing for actual work situations and will learn to deal with people in all types of business situations.

PHASES OF ENGLISH

To think clearly, to write creatively, and to speak with poise and authority; these are the aims and end results of the study of English.

A good bulletin board grows out of the study of words in Miss Fleming's class. Larry Beasley, Stuart Pike, Judy Puckett, Ann Seal and Lindsay Bobbitt coordinate their results.

Wilma Upchurch enjoys a book on England during Shakespeare's day.

Group study of Colonial days in American Literature is done by Gary Thompson, Janice Wheeler, Carolyn Surratt, and Dillard Goad.

The Chemistry Club is the newest club to be organized in our school. It grew out of interest in the world of chemistry beyond the classroom. Plans are being made for projects and trips to increase interest in this subject.

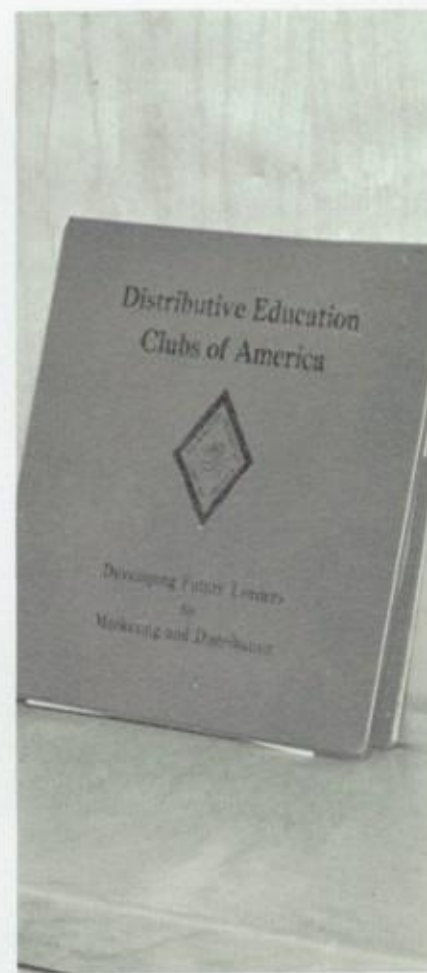

Officers are: President, Sandra Marshall; Vice-president Cathy Goad; Secretary, Pat Payne; Treasurer, Harvette Atkins; Reporter, Steve Bolen; Adviser, Mrs. Mary C. Lowe.

OPPORTUNITY IN

As "Variety is the spice of life," so, varied activities lend interest and stimulate school life. An extra-curricular activity is valuable when it gives opportunity to individuals to develop initiative, leadership, and a sense of service. The school gains when student activities have definite purposes of value to the student body.

ACTIVITIES

BUSINESS CLUB ATTRACTS

DECA Sweetheart for 1966: Janice Haynes

Bennie Weaver, Adviser of the DECA Club.

The DECA Club includes selected Distributive Education students. In this first year of organization, the group plans a clean-up campaign and other projects of benefit to the school.

MARKETING STUDENTS

These are charter members of the first DECA group in our school. First row: Janice Haynes, Gaye Hunter, Gwyn Wagoner, Elaine Moss, Carl Edwards, Frances Hawks, Carol Marion. Second row: Brenda Johnson, Dayle Mitchell, Pat Payne, Janice Southern, Larry Easter, Jay Coalson, Linda Galyean, Kay Bruner, Juanita Bullin, Dennis Atkins, Joyce Smith. Third row: Dale Newman, Larry Parker, Clara Ramey, Mr. Weaver, Barbara Creed, Virgil Bartley, Ray Easter, Frances Shore, Dale Hawks, Mike Harris.

Pat Payne receives a certificate for runner-up in competition in a district Distributive Education contest for future secretaries.

CONSTRUCTION BOYS FORM

Officers of the Vocational Club are: Joe Draughn, Vice-president; Mike Fowler, President; Mr. Tilley, Adviser; Mike Beasley, Secretary; Gable Atkins, Treasurer; Mr. Hiatt, Adviser.

The Vocational and Industrial Club is in its first year of organization. Boys who have taken a Vocational course are eligible for membership. Some projects are being planned to raise funds.

VOCATIONAL CLUB

The Carpentry class learns to build framing for a house.

SPANISH CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Members of the Spanish Club have an opportunity to learn the music, games, social customs and dress of Spanish-speaking people. This increases our understanding of people of the world. Many student projects will be undertaken to add interest to club work.

Mr. Rogers, Adviser, talks to the Spanish Club about some Mexican artifacts.

YOUNG PATRIOTS SHOW LOYALTY

Any student interested in the heritage of his country, and who wants to become a good citizen may be a member of the Young Patriots. The group has conducted several patriotic assembly programs, given library books on history, and made a substantial donation to the activity bus fund.

Andy Lowe, President, opens the first meeting of the club.

Mrs. Lowe, Adviser, sometimes known as the "Doughnut Queen."

Charles Wilmouth, Rhodney Lowe, Jack Byrd, and Andy Lowe officiate at a flag raising ceremony with all Young Patriots in the background.

President Wayne Tolbert and Mrs. McGee, Adviser, work with Hilda Key and Lou Golding, Treasurer, on the school directory project.

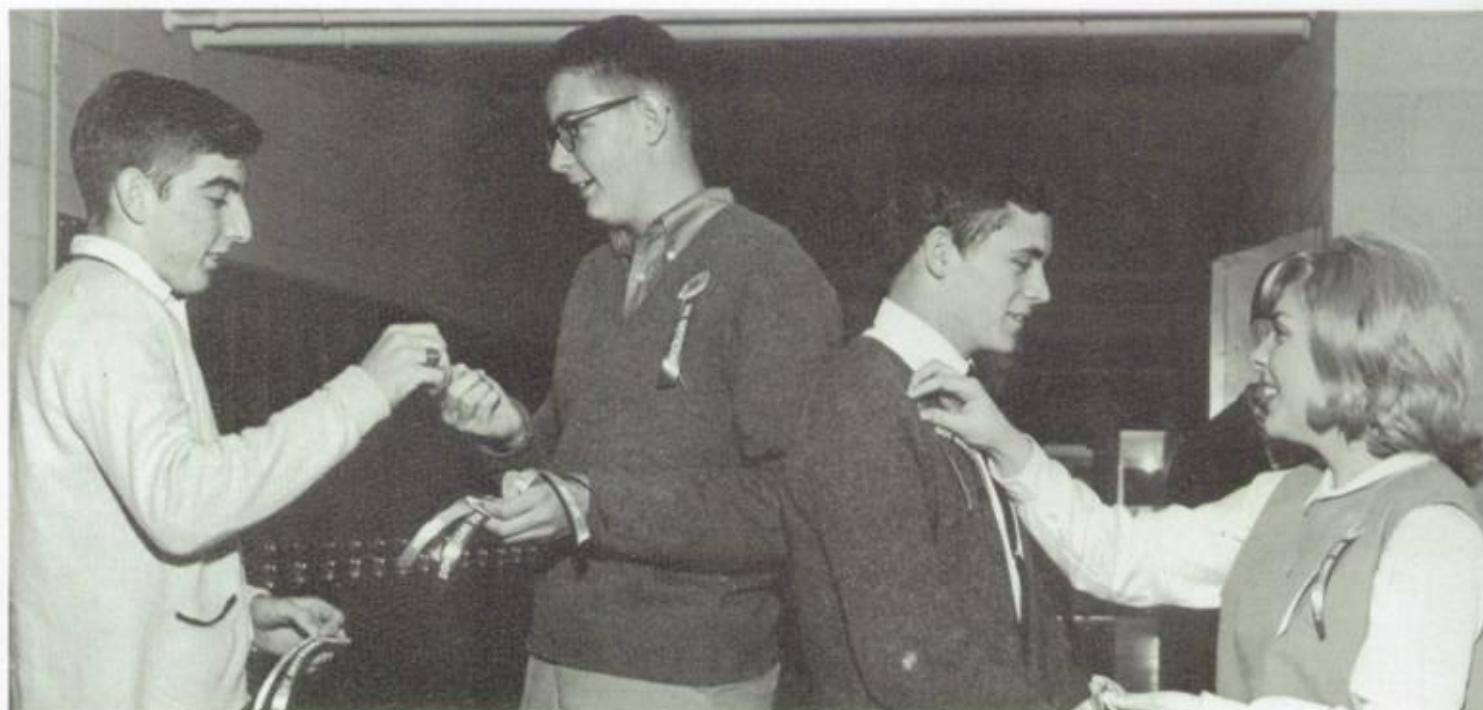

STUDENT COUNCIL

Formed in 1964-'65, The Student Council serves as a liason between the faculty and students. Many projects have been worked out to clarify social conduct at student affairs. Monthly devotional programs have been well received.

Carlton Jessup and Freddie Hutchens are buying Booster Badges from Charles Wilmouth and Detra Hall.

GROWS IN STRENGTH

Officers and members of the Student Council: Mrs. McGee, Adviser; Gary Bunton, Wayne Tolbert, President; Hilda Key, Pat Marion, Lou Golding, Treasurer; Detra Hall, Benny Goins.

Second row: Paul Hodges, Richard Snow, Larry Seal, Freddy Hutchens, Peggy Fore, Carolyn Surratt, Secretary; Jerry Martin, Linda Slate, Charles Wilmouth, Larry Johnson.

Wayne Tolbert, Reverend Sid Gardner, assembly speaker; and Linda Slate, Vice-president.

Carolyn Surratt and Hilda Key sell pennants to Gary Bunton and Benny Goins to raise some funds for the Student Council.

SCHOOL LIFE PICTURED

Planning for the advertising section is done by Dennis Beasley, Mike Bateman, Rhodney Lowe, Brenda Brindle, Marlene Utt, Cornelia Jessup, and Skip Hodges.

Mr. Hendrix calls on Judy Nichols, Brenda Brindle, and Franklin Snow to assist him in taking pictures.

Care must be used in keeping circulation records. Rhodney Lowe and Dennis Beasley check with Brenda Brindle, Circulation Manager.

IN NORTH STAR

Members of the NORTH STAR staff are chosen from the Junior and Senior classes on the basis of talents, interest, ability to work with others, and home communities. Our job is to produce the NORTH STAR and make it a complete record of a school year.

Selection of pictures takes the attention of Tina Sykes, Pat Mosley and Andy Lowe.

Miss Louise Kendall, Adviser, coordinates the many phases of producing the yearbook.

Many hours of planning go into selection of theme and plan of presentation. Mary Jane Moore, and Cynthia Robertson, co-editors, work together to make final plans.

FUTURE TEACHERS ORGANIZED

The Future Teachers Club is in its first season and there is great interest in its activities.

Mary Jane Moore, Reporter; Nova Lee Crouse, Vice-president; Tina Sykes, President; Delores Blackburn, Treasurer; Beverly Huffman, Secretary.

Our Chapter of Future Teachers of America was formed in 1965-'66 and is open to any student who is seriously considering becoming a teacher. Among other plans, we hope to secure information on Vocational opportunities in education, and to study qualities, traits and aptitudes related to successful teaching.

Archie Bowman, Janet Ramey, Mrs. Haynes, Adviser; and Tina Sykes plan programs for Future Teachers Club.

DEBATERS PARTICIPATE

Any student who enjoys speaking and wants to train himself in logical thinking may join the Debate Club. Members will participate in the North Carolina Debating Union activities, and in the Wake Forest Speech Festival.

In a practice debate, Larry Johnson refutes a point made by affirmative speakers Wayne Tolbert and Johnny Miglorie as Jack Byrd takes notes. Dianna Sheets is timekeeper.

The Debate Club holds a workshop to search for materials on the current question.

THE BARK PRINTS THE NEWS

The Journalism class studies the processes of journalistic writing. At the same time, it produces THE BARK, the bi-weekly newspaper of the school.

Press day is a busy time for Mrs. Bradford, Adviser, as she checks copy for THE BARK.

The whole staff is needed to assemble pages of the paper.

Nova Lee Crouse buys a copy of THE BARK from Charles Simmons and Barbara Forest.

MARTIN AND THOMAS ELECTED EDITORS

Mrs. Bradford explains a point on layout to Jerry Martin and Mary Thomas, Editors.

Pat Payne and La Donna Hodges type stencils as Helen Puckett, Dennis Atkins, and Jean Atkins run the mimeograph.

KEY CLUB HELPS AT JAMBOREE

Dennis Younger, Vice-president; Larry Easter, and Jerry Martin, Secretary confer on Key Club business with president; Kenny Hiatt. Freddie Hutchens, Treasurer not pictured.

The Key Club is composed of boys selected for their devotion to the interests of the school. Final selection is based on serious purpose, character, and willingness to serve. The club gives time and money to worthwhile service projects.

Mr. Helton, Adviser, works with Jerry Martin, Aaron Massey, and Freddie Hutchens to plan stationery sales project.

Jerry Martin, Harry Marshall, Dennis Younger, Mr. Helton, Adviser; Aaron Massey, Bobby Livengood, Benny Goins, James Poplin, Kenny Hiatt, Terry Scott, Dennis Beasley, E. J. Ayers, Harold McCraw, Bobby Stevens, Jerry Hemmings, Dicky Younger, Larry Easter, Archie Lankford, Ray Easter, Dwight Coleman, Freddie Hutchins, Phillip Clement, Bruce Evans.

DEPENDABLE DRIVERS TRANSPORT STUDENTS

The first duty of Bus Drivers is to transport students to school and back home. Much training, thought, and planning produce a remarkable safety record each year.

Mr. Hatcher gives an eye test to Roy Coleson in the training program for bus drivers.

"FINDERS CREEPERS"

A tense moment in "Finders Creepers" practically petrifies Debbie Long, Charles Wilmouth, Sandra Golding, Aaron Massey, Basil Haunn and Sharon Stewart.

Drama Club officers: Helen Puckett, Vice-President; Charles Wilmouth, Treasurer; Joyce Grey, Secretary; Aaron Massey, President.

Lou Golding, Jean Sawyers, Linda Baldwin and Dianna Sheets advertise "Finders Creepers" in December.

DRAWS LARGE AUDIENCE

Charles Wilmouth eavesdrops on Aaron Masseys tenth proposal to Sharon Stewart in "Finders Creepers".

All students interested in any phase of dramatic production may join the Drama Club. Two plays are presented each year to the public. The group also travels to other places to see dramatic presentations.

Becky McCraw, Pat Marion and Mr. Rogers prepare prompter's books.

Deborah Long, Patty Davis, Cornelia Jessup, Miss Fleming, and Joe Kirkman are ready for the trip to Chapel Hill.

FUTURE FARMERS ENTER

The Livestock Judging team plans for its next competition: Arthur Hiatt, Dennis Cockerham, Leon Slate, and Kenneth Johnson.

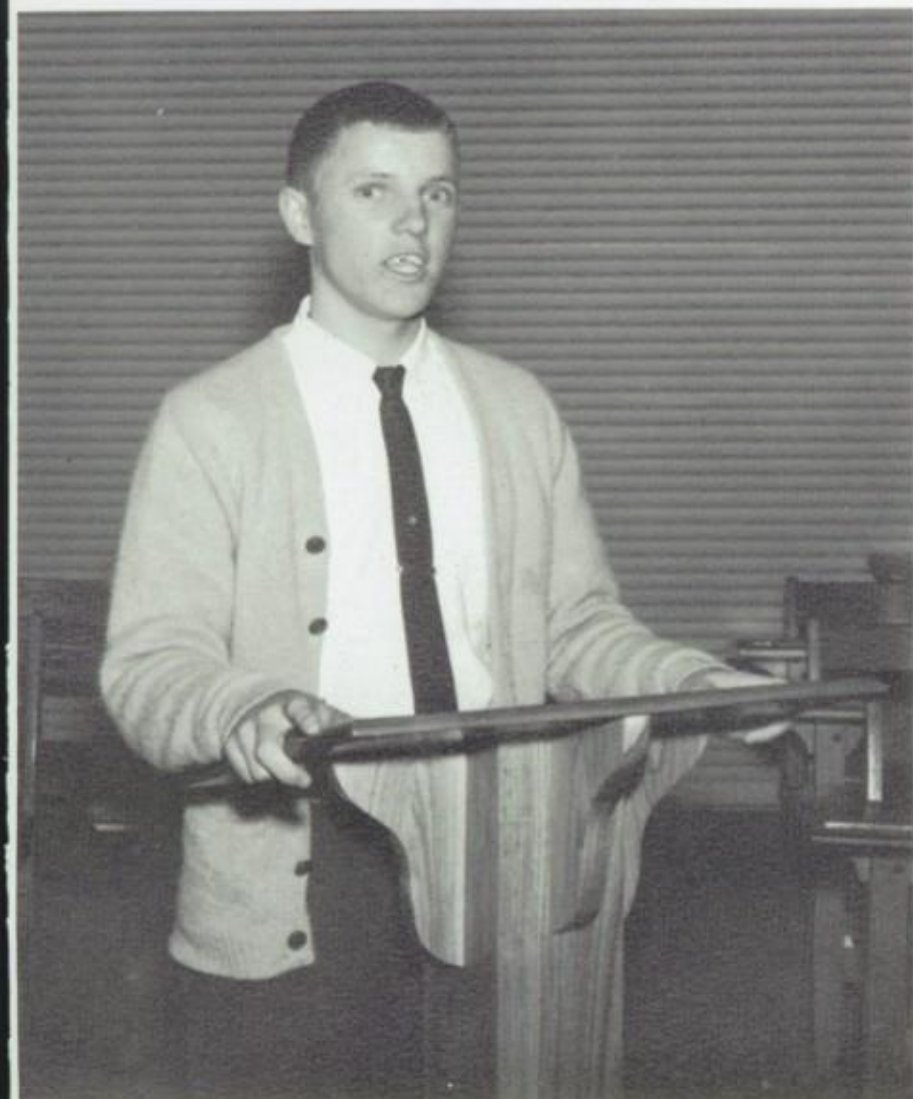

Dale York, Dewey Carpenter, Dean Simmons, William Johnson, and Larry Seal are the top team for Dairy Cattle Judging.

JUDGING COMPETITION

Arthur Hiatt wins the top post in Public Speaking.

Our Chapter of Future Farmers of America is made up of all boys who are currently taking a Vocational Agriculture course. Work is done on parliamentary procedure and club organization. Among projects for this year is that of planting bulbs, shrubs, and doing some landscaping on the school grounds.

Land Judging honors go to Dennis Cockerham, Bill Seal, Jerry Newman, and Terry Thomas.

Gary Doss, Graham Casstevens, Eddie Radford, Phil Combs, Scottie East, and Wayne Davis work on their Tool Identifications.

Larry Seal presides in a meeting in which Dewey Carpenter, William Johnson, Dale York, Ronnie Venable and Dean Simmons practice parliamentary procedure.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

Any girl who has taken a course in Home Economics is eligible to be a member of Future Homemakers. Members have visited and helped aged people, made gifts for needy people, prepared hospital tray favors, and planned a Mother-Daughter banquet. A gift of shrubbery helps to beautify the East Wing.

Patsy Creasy and Delores Blackburn entertain for the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

FHA Advisers: Miss Coltrane, Mrs. Hemmings, and Miss Billings.

Off to the district FHA Rally in Greensboro in October, with sack lunches in hand.

FHA Clubs entertain teachers with a lovely tea.

COMPLETE MANY PROJECTS

Our FHA Club won a blue ribbon on this exhibit at the Surry County Fair. The caption "Don't Put All Your Eggs in One Basket" refers to wise management of family income.

equal basis with other members. The club gives athletic jackets to senior boys and girls in the club.

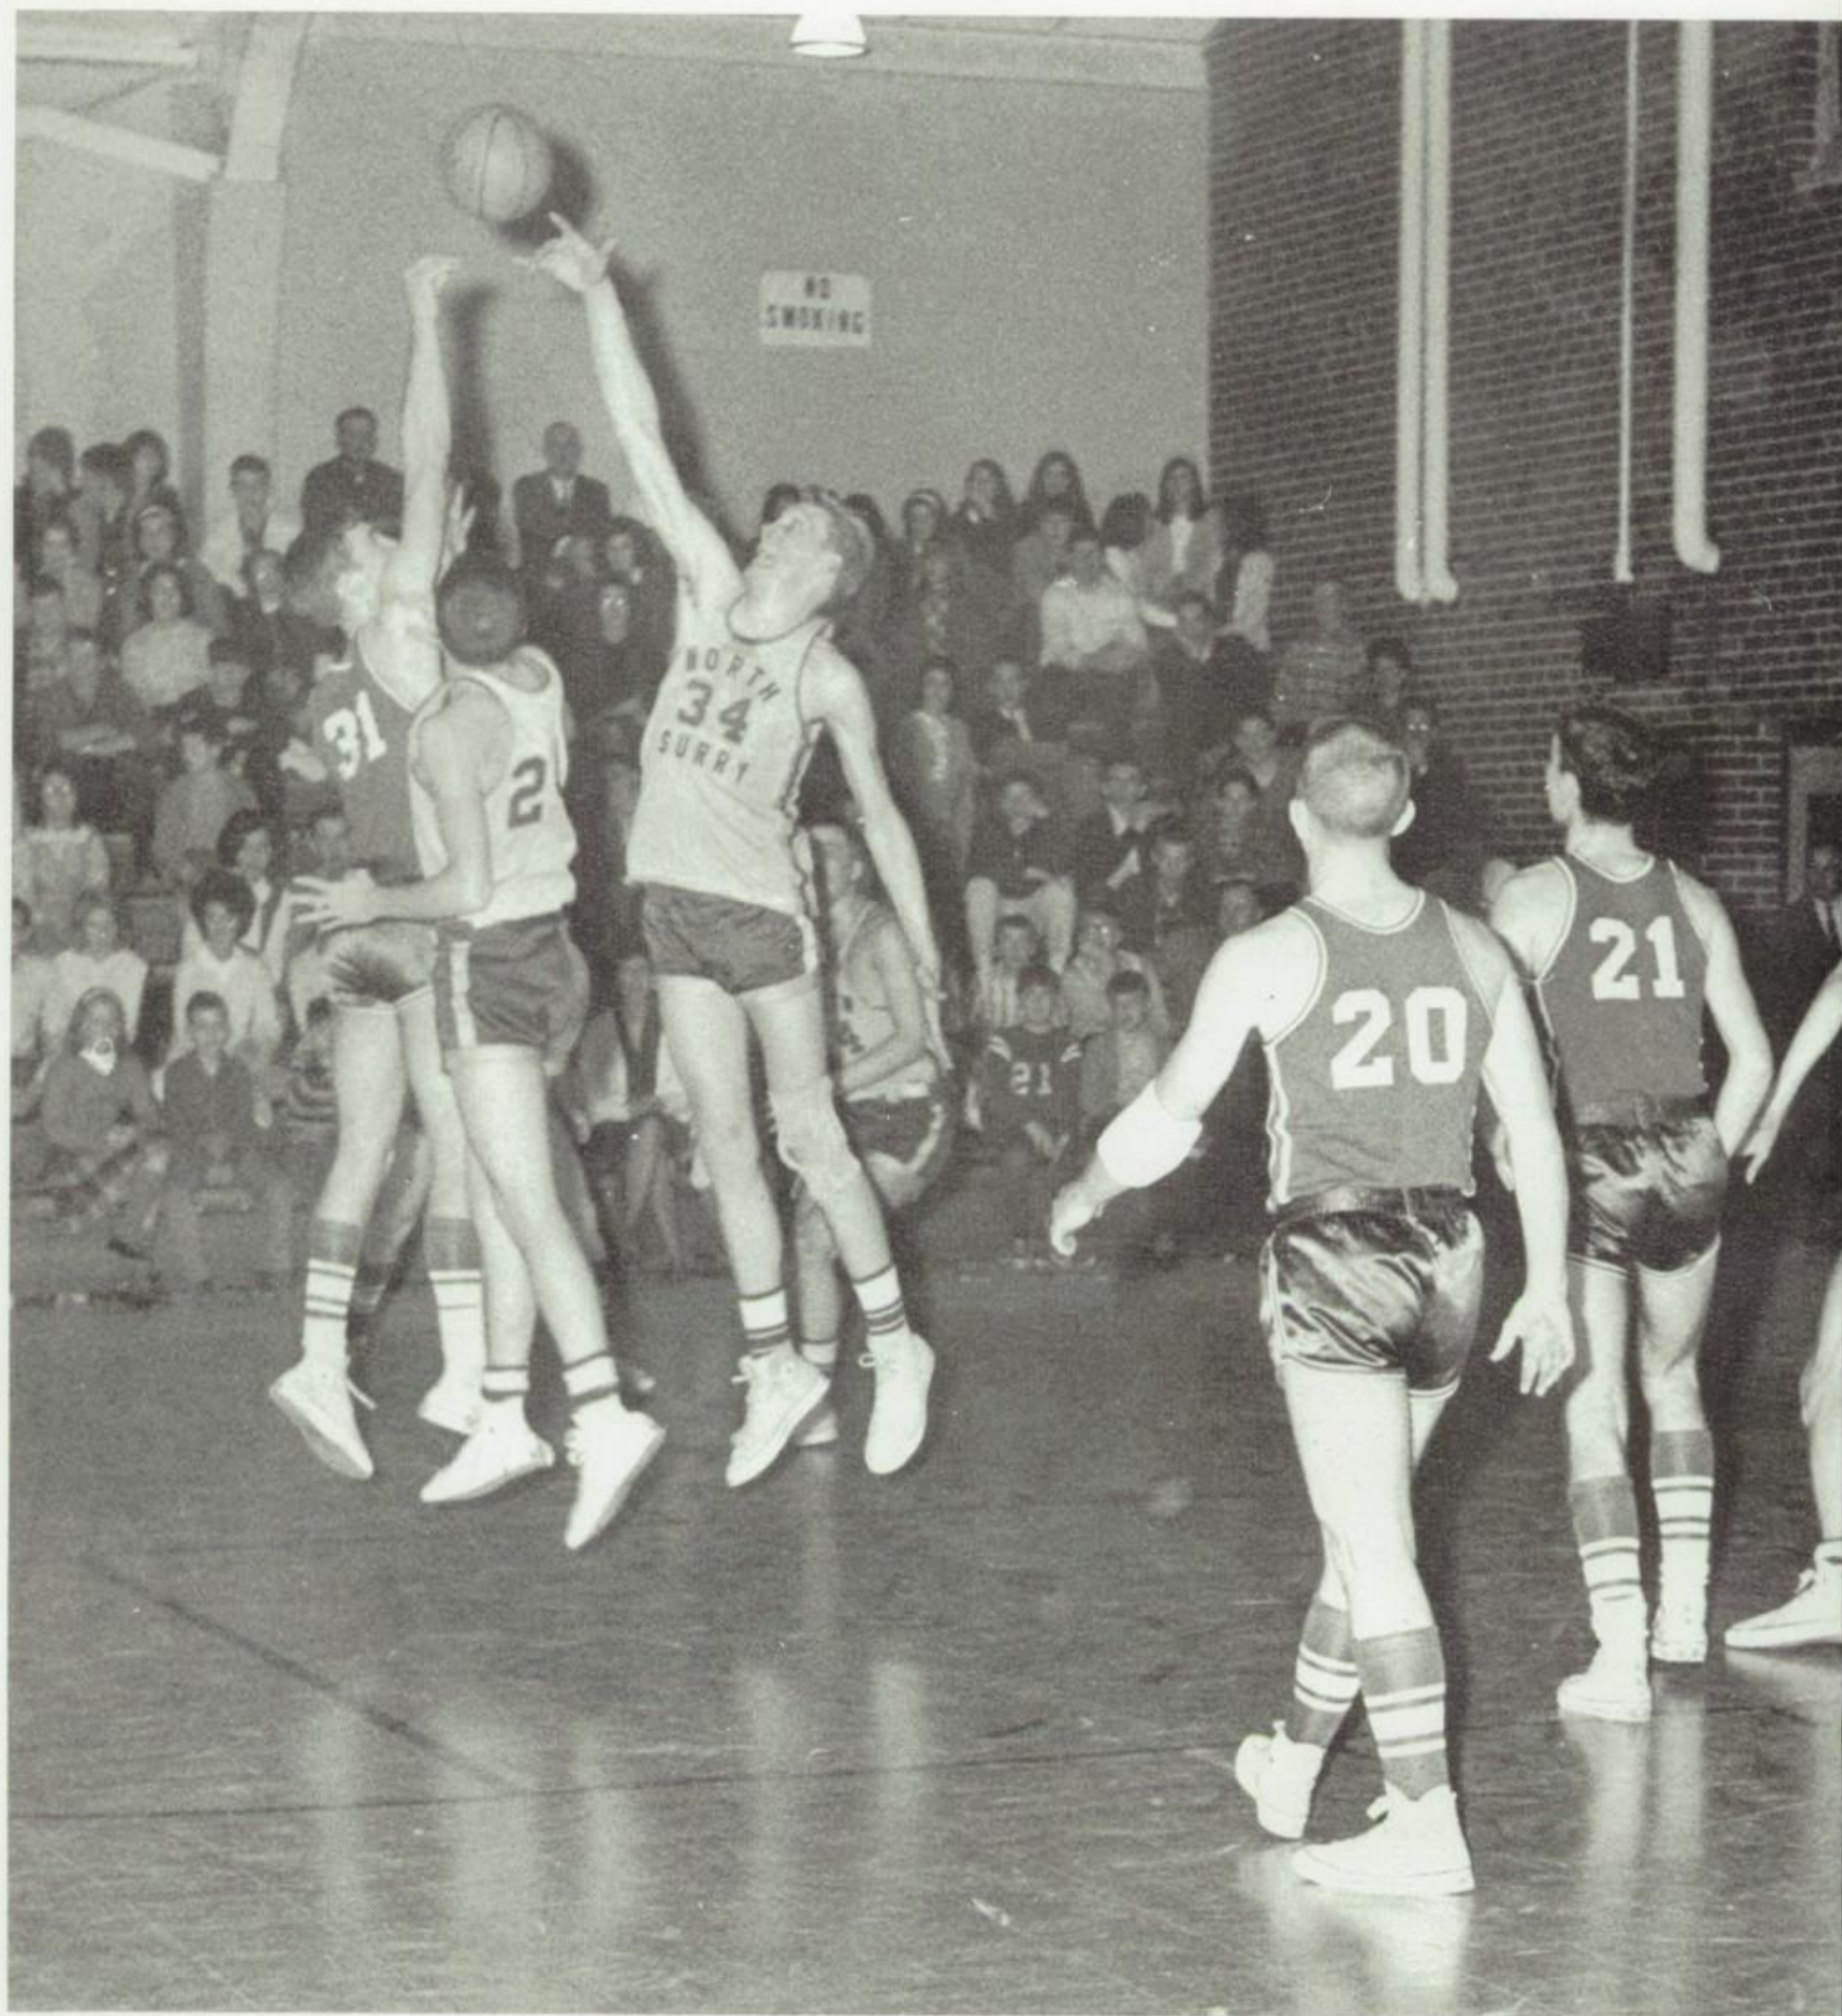

WADE GALYEAN ELECTED PRESIDENT

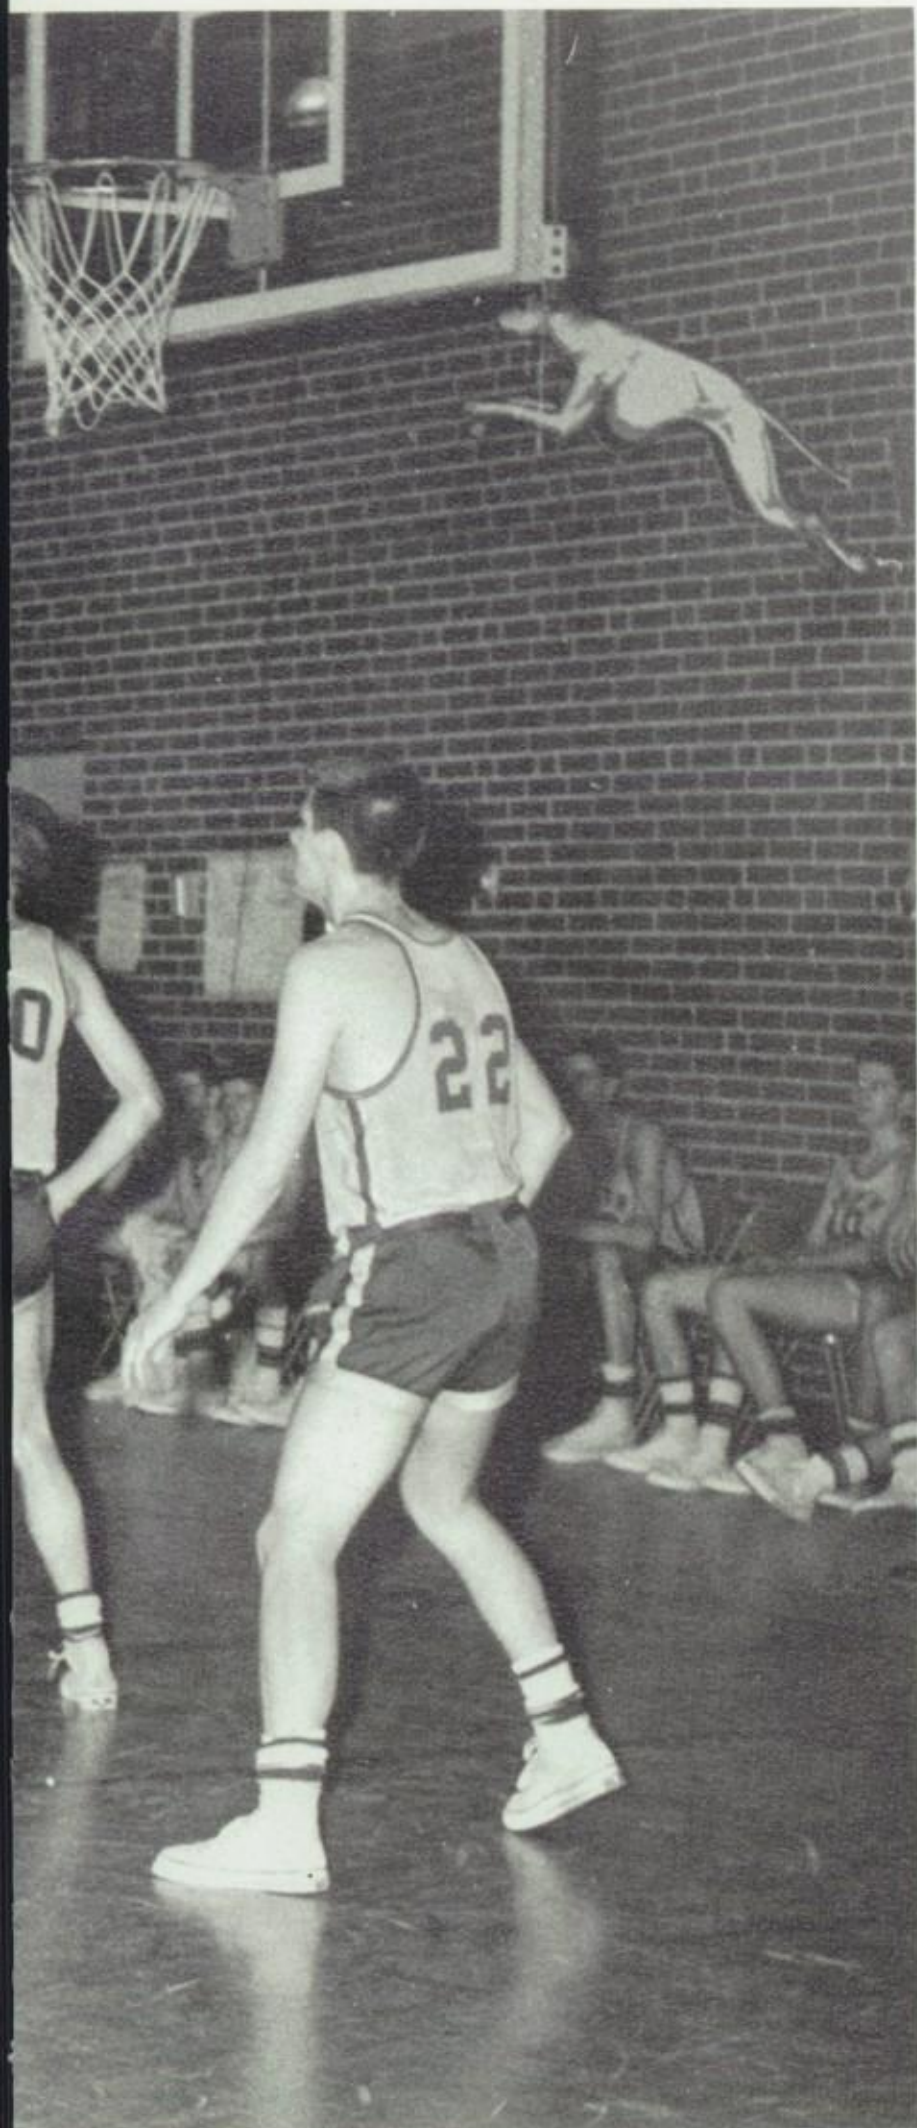

Advisers to Monogram Club: Mr. Bill Atkins, Mrs. Gaye Martin, Mr. Charlie Atkins.

Mr. J. L. Hiatt is always on hand to announce all our football games.

OPPORTUNITY

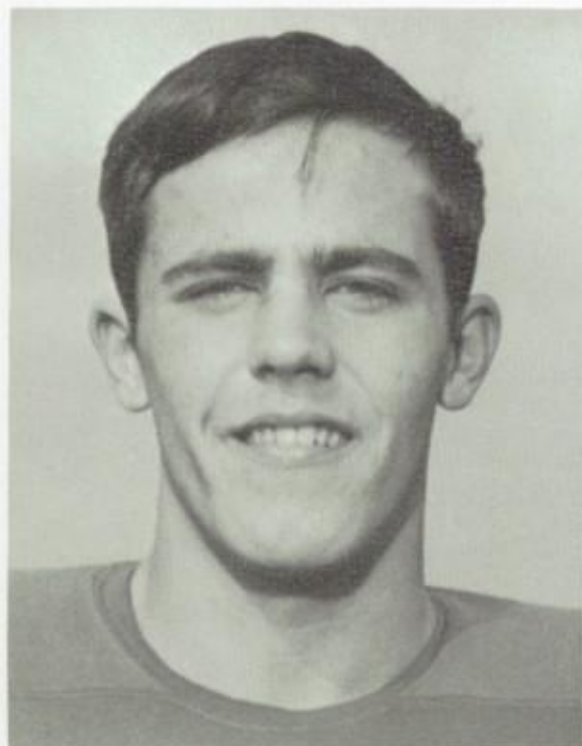

Participating in sports offers many opportunities for growth. Physical development, and learning to think come through working with others in strenuous games. Indeed, those who watch our teams in action gain a new conception of teamwork. Much improvement in school spirit over the years strengthens our loyalty to our school. (Mount Airy News Photo)

DIANE DAVIS CROWNED QUEEN

One of the high moments of the football season is the Homecoming. Interest grows with the secret vote of the student body for the queen. Pride in our school and its athletics program is very evident as the large, excited crowd of spectators greets the members of the queen's court and their escorts, and with much ceremony, the queen is crowned.

The captain of the football team has special privileges.

Diane Davis is crowned queen of the 1965-66 Homecoming by Janie Goings, queen for 1964-65. Mike Davis escorts his sister.

OPPORTUNITY COMES TO THE GREYHOUNDS

Ending the season with a 16-3 record, the Greyhounds won the District 7 Conference by defeating Fred T. Foard, 79-64, Ashe Central 84-55, and North Wilkes 47-41, in successive games. North Surry averaged 66 points per game while allowing their opponents 52. Starting in 16th position these victories bring us to the final rounds of the state tournament.

GREAT TEAM EFFORT WINS DISTRICT 7 CHAMPIONSHIP

The 'Hounds took on Ashe Central in the semi-finals of district play and polished them off to the tune of 84-55.

Jerry Hemmings snatches the ball from two N. Wilkes defenders while David Smith and Kenny Hiatt set up for a play.

(News Photo)

With the score tied at the end of every quarter, Bobby Wood stole the ball in overtime and dropped it in the basket to give North Surry a 47-41 win over North Wilkes for the District 7 title. Coach Atkins says "It was strictly a team effort. They played like champions and that's what it took to win."

The beautiful trophies, game balls, and nets prove our ability to bring home the Victory.

With Smith controlling both boards and getting 24 points, and Ayers riddling Stedman's defense with 23 points, the Greyhounds pulled away in the second half to an 85-55 victory. Coach Atkins cleared the bench and eleven players joined in defeating Stedman who came into the tourney with a 23-3 record. The Greyhounds defeated Garner 60-44 after the Garner team had won 27 straight games. David Smith took 15 rebounds to promote the victory.

MR. AND MISS NORTH SURRY ARE SELECTED

In the selection of Mr. and Miss North Surry, at least four ideals are considered. These are character, which commands respect from all; loyalty to his school, his church, and his friends; leadership that gets the job done; and service voluntarily given to his school and community.

Hilda Key and Wayne Tolbert are selected as the two people who best symbolize these ideals in the Class of 1966.

OPPORTUNITY FOR

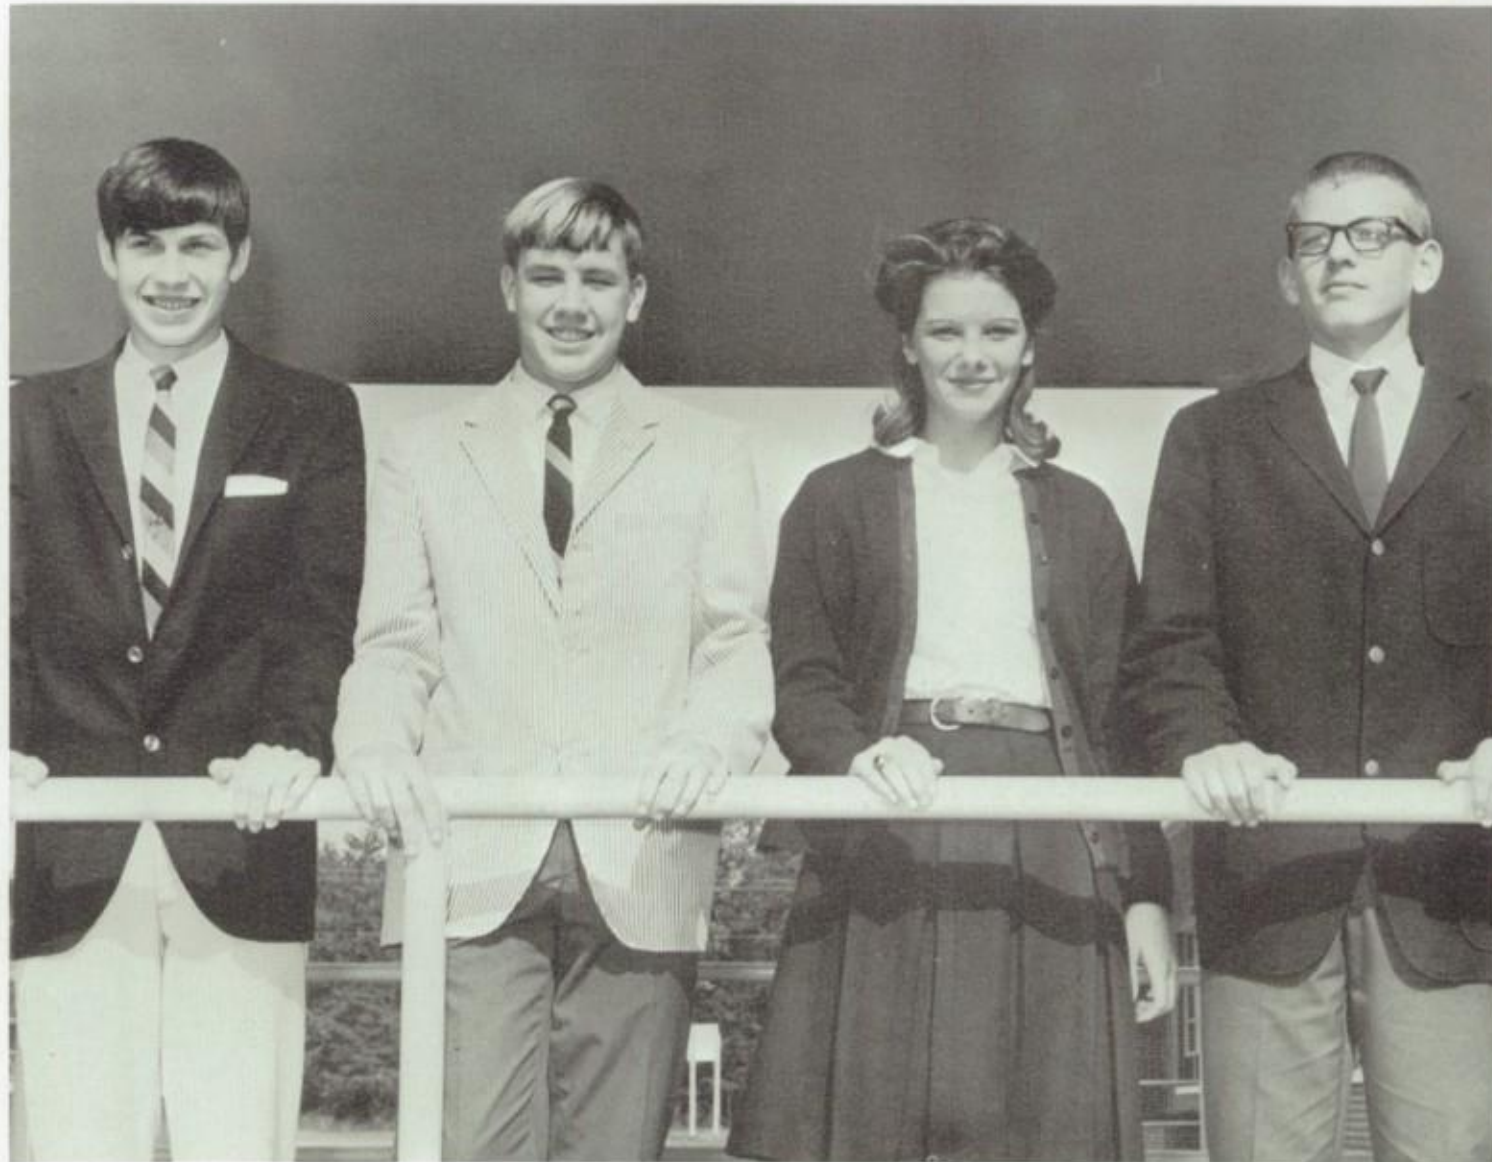

The 170 members of the Senior Class of 1966 have spent twelve years in preparation for the future. The expansion of our school's curriculum, the opportunity to take an active part in many activities, and the guidance of dedicated teachers throughout their years of school, have given to the members of this class a good foundation on which to build lives of service. Many are already enrolled in schools of higher education, some will enter the military service, and others will immediately begin earning a living in industry. Our hope for them is for prosperous, happy and useful lives. We trust that the spirit of North Surry will always be with them.

OPPORTUNITY

We approach the end of each year with mingled joy and sadness. It has been a good year and yet we realize we have missed many opportunities. Baccalaureate sermon and graduation ceremonies complete our years here together. We have learned a great deal that will help us as we search for the great opportunities that can be ours in the future.

-NOW

SPRING EVENTS TAKE US NEARER . . .

The Junior-Senior Prom is one of the happy moments late in the year. These senior boys anticipate a great time.

Faculty members and other guests enjoy the colorful affair.

TO COMMENCEMENT

Events of the spring include the Mother-Daughter Banquet; Key Club Convention; Baseball games; Merit Exam; FHA Convention; receiving the yearbook; Picnics; Easter Vacation, and Golf matches.

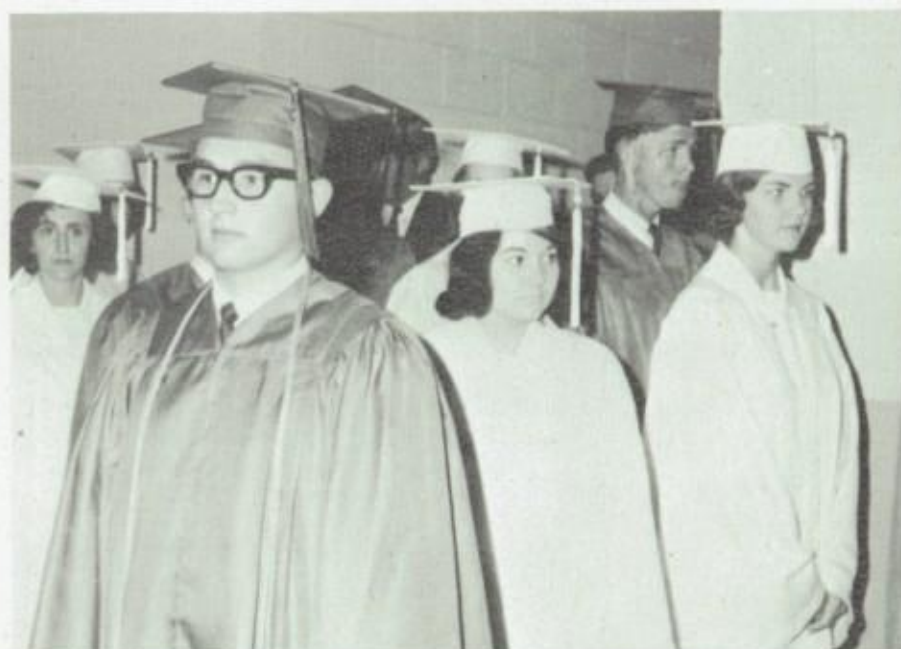

Yearbooks are stacked in readiness for delivery following the dedication ceremony.

The system of activity points which we keep for all students gives a complete record for all activities participation. The committee, composed of Mr. Poplin, Mrs. Gaye Martin, Diane Davis, Zack Lowe, Mrs. Aldridge, Jo Ann Mears, Johnny Paul Long, Mr. Rogers, work out the methods to be used in computing complete credits.

Mr. Hutchens leaves the buildings clean and orderly for the summer.

The last long march is one not to be taken lightly nor soon forgotten.

Checking in textbooks and making an accurate book report is done at the end of the year by Miss Vass, Mrs. Poplin, Jo Ann Mears, and Dale Hutchins.

We face the future now, stronger and more mature for our experiences this year, and happier for the associations we have shared. We do not look back, because our ways lie ahead of us, and in order to make progress we must center our attention on the next challenges to be met. With hope and ambition we plan for a good life for we know that Opportunity is—Now.
